

RURAL DEVELOPMENT CELEBRATION DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Carroll County is a progressive rural County nestled in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Southwest Virginia; and

WHEREAS, Carroll County understands the importance of infrastructure in order to expand services while growing and attracting business to increase the economic standing of the County citizens; and

WHEREAS, Carroll County has been the receiptant of tens of millions of dollars in grants and loans for numerous projects in Carroll County as well as for projects that directly affect Carroll County citizens through USDA-Rural Development. The direct investments are being used to enabling Carroll County to move forward on many fronts including infrastructure development, safety of citizens and property and creating physical environments for educational attainment and workforce development; and

WHEREAS, Carroll County is appreciative of the efforts of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 and for other Rural Development funds being invested in Carroll County; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Carroll County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims August 6, 2010 as USDA-Rural Development Celebration Day.

Duly adopted by the Carroll County Board of Supervisors on July 12, 2010 by a unanimous vote of the Board.

Wesley G. Hurst, Chairman Carroll County Board of Supervisors

Gary Larowe, County Administrator